Golf outing dinner gains $1,200 for Seton Knights

Dinners served by Seton Knights to participants of the the annual Labor Day weekend golf outing sponsored by Seton Parish and held Sept. 1 at Pine Hill Golf Course will generate approximately $1,200 for the council.

Knights will donate a portion of the amount to the parish toward purchase of a laser printer for the office.

Bob Snider and Charlie Tagliareni co-chaired the event. Other Knights involved in preparing, serving or assisting were:

Larry Albanese, Sean Casebolt, Charlie Giametta, Mark Hertenstein, Bud Joos, Ed Koegler, Rick Larkin, Terry Leach, Bob McDonald, Rich Michinski, Jim Michnowicz, John Morrison, Jerry Nelson, Joe Rossi, Bob Swiderski, Fran Vendetta, George Williams and Bob Wolf.

Thom Laughery also assisted as did three youths — Steve LaRe, Matt Tagliareni and Ross Vendetta.

Grand Knight Tagliareni expressed special thanks to Dave McAllister, who chaired the golf committee, for allowing Knights to serve the dinner for second consecutive year and to Father Steve Hawkins for his remarks on behalf of Seton Knights following the dinner.

Concluding, Tagliareni noted very little was left over following the meal. "We finished the brats, hot dogs and hamburgers."

Other positions are filled; two more remain open

Grand Knight Charlie Tagliareni has announced several additional appointments to complement officers elected in June and who assumed their duties in July.

- J. B. Boblett — health services
- Terry Leach — publicity director
- Dave McKenna — retention chairman
- John Morrison — lecturer
- Jerry Nelson — retention chairman
- George Williams — membership director.
- Others appointed previously were:*
- Father Steve Hawkins — chaplain
- Rich Machinski — community director
- Mike Monnin — youth director
- Joe Rossi — program director
- Bob Wolf — church director.

Still needed, Tagliareni continued, are a vocations chairman and a husband and wife team to serve as pro life chairmen.

Knights have opportunity to form own golf league

Seton Knights have the opportunity to form their own golf league next year at Pine Hill Golf Course. Project Chairman J.B. Boblett issued the following details:

- Starting month — Late April or early May
- Evenings available — Tuesday or Wednesday
- Tee time — 6 p.m.

Cost — $72 per week for each half; $144 total.

"We probably need at least 20 golfers to make this happen," Boblett said. Interested Knights should contact me, via a note in my church mailbox, by Oct. 1."

Knights' action line

Monday agenda items — Agenda items for Monday's (Sept. 9) regular Monday meeting will include discussion on making Mondays the permanent night for meetings. The Seton Parish Festival (Sept. 13-14-15) also will be discussed. Grand Knight Charlie Tagliareni, co-chairman of the food committee, has requested Knights' assistance in food clean-up beginning at 8:30 each of the three evenings.

Win vehicles, cash — Drawing tickets for The Great Outdoors, the annual fall raffle sponsored by Ohio Council, Knights of Columbus, will be sold by Seton Knights after Masses beginning the weekend of Sept. 21-22. In addition to vehicles and cash, numerous other prizes will be awarded.

Worth hearing — Father Dave, at the August business meeting, presented a slide supplemented program on his trip to Third World nations for a first-hand view of the economics of hunger and its effects on the poor, especially children. "That visit changed my life," he told his audience.

Help the unborn — Knights have been requested to write their federal legislators in support of a vote to overthrow President Bill Clinton's veto of HR 1833, the partial abortion ban act.

Adoration/Saturday Mass — October adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be held Oct. 4-5 with First Saturday Mass sponsored by Seton Knights to follow at 9 a.m. Oct. 5.

Social events — A group of Seton Knights enjoyed the occasion but did not grow rich during a social outing last month at Scioto Downs. A family picnic for Knights and guests will be held from 1 to 7 p.m. Oct. 6 at Victory Park. Contact Joe Rossi if you plan to attend. Bring a covered dish or dessert. Knights will supply meat and soft drinks.

Diocesan Vocation Day — The annual vocation day for Columbus Diocese will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Oct. 13 at the Josephinum. Seton Knights will pay the $5 registration fee for Seton youths planning to attend.
