

HAPPY EASTER

KOFC COUNCIL 11187 NEWSLETTER

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Council 11187
600 Hill Road, North Pickerington Ohio 43147

Dear Brother Knights,

On March 5th the Knights will work the Parish Mission. We put the call out for chili and of course Wayne is looking for people to work. Be expecting a call for help here! Again, this is part of our mission and we want to present our usual exemplary involvement as Knights.

On March 15 we celebrate St. Patrick's day with a Parish wide party featuring traditional Irish fare and entertainment.

On March 23, we celebrate Easter, the day Jesus rose from the dead after dying for all of us on the cross. This is where he made the greatest sacrifice that anyone could make. It is the most important day of our faith. This day is not about Easter baskets, dresses or even the Easter Bunny, those are for the secular world. We celebrate the fact that Jesus rose to be at his Father's side.

So Lucretia, Maria, Angela and I wish everyone a very Happy Easter ...

Recently, with help from Bud Joos and Mark Borys, I sent out emails regarding the rosters that were placed on the web. I also took a look at some figures ...

- 263 listed members
- 12 inactive members
- 251 "Active" members

Now for some interesting stats ...

- 89 email addresses or 35% of the membership
- 241 phone numbers or 96% of the membership
- ~80 people that have worked various events or 32% of the membership

So we have about 171 "ACTIVE" Brother Knights that we do not see at events or meetings. I think that is kind of sad in a way. Somehow we are not meeting their needs.

We all joined the Knights for one reason or another. It might have been to meet new people. It may have been because you like what the Knights stand for or it may have been just to get rid of the annoying person nagging you to join ... the fact is you joined. If you remember when you joined, after the ceremony you were welcomed into the order and told that when you participate you will be rewarded tenfold and your life will be changed forever because your family has now been extended to include 260 new friends.

In order for you to receive this gift, we need to get to know you, we need to see you, we need you to come to a meeting, an event, show up at the first Saturday Mass ... you need to become active in our Council.

We realize that you can not attend every event, meeting, party or function ... but somewhere in there you should be able to make something. I hate to be preachy about it, but why join a service organization that is very active in the parish, if you do not want to participate?

I personally want to invite each and everyone of you to come to a meeting, get to know us, have some fun with us ...

I would like everyone to check your information on the roster. If it is wrong please fill out the change form (online) print it and put it in my mailbox at church.

For those of you do not have an email account or a computer for that matter, you still have options. We have access to a Knights mail account, or you can head to the local library and sign up for a free email account from Google, Yahoo, or Microsoft to name a few. The best part ... FREE! Once you get the email account, let me know ... you will start getting the information quicker.

If you are ready to buy a computer there are those of us in the Council that can help with selection, setup and the basics. Computers are cheap and if buying is not in your future ... guess what? The library is always available ... again Free, just need that pesky library card!

Finally, I remind you that after attending the Knights First Saturday Mass and social, the Officers meeting follows and is open to all. Come see where the Council is going and guess what - we'll even let you have a say! ;-)

Ah, the Humanity

An article on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website noted a change in the attitude of both the Supreme Court and Hollywood about the humanity of unborn children:

Historians may remember 2007 for different reasons. But for me it was the year when both the U.S. Supreme Court and Hollywood discovered the humanity of unborn children and the existence of abortion alternatives. One need only revisit the Court's past abortion opinions and the movie industry's usual approach to abortion to appreciate the radical course correction this past year.

Beginning with Roe v. Wade, the Court has deftly danced around the reality of what abortion does to unborn children. Words like kill, destroy, and even "take the life" are all but absent from majority opinions. In Roe, abortion meant only "a woman's decision whether or not to terminate her pregnancy."

For the next 35 years, the Court bloodlessly described choice, procedures and "potential life." Even when dealing with the appalling reality of partial-birth abortion in 2000, the Court's majority resorted to sanitized expressions, like calling the baby's skull "fetal calvarium" and referring to tearing off the child's limbs as "disarticulation."

But throughout the Gonzales v. Carhart decision of April 2007, which upheld the federal partial-birth abortion ban, the Court calls abortion "killing" and identifies the fetus as an infant and an unborn child. No longer is abortion treated as a minor, morally unproblematic surgery like removing a mole. It is a decision "fraught with emotional consequence," "a difficult and painful moral decision." And the State has "an interest in ensuring so grave a choice is well informed," even if such knowledge may encourage some women "to carry the infant to full term." There is an alternative to abortion? Who knew?

For the typical treatment of abortion in movies recall "Fast Times at Ridgemont High," "Dirty Dancing" and that paean to noble, selfless, misunderstood abortion providers "Cider House Rules," and its British counterpart "Vera Drake." The message here is that young women need abortions and providers help them, often at great personal risk.

Fast forward to 2007 where we find four movies dealing with unplanned, problematic pregnancies among three single females and one woman married to a brute. The outcome? Four births and two adoption plans.

Only one ("Bella") could be considered a pro-life, pro-family film. Its motif is that every human has God-given dignity and deserves to be respected and loved, whether an unborn child, an immigrant family, or the usually unseen kitchen and waiting staff at restaurants.

The message of "Juno" is complicated by factors I can't disclose without spoiling the plot. Yet the undeniable humanity of Juno's unborn child is captured through the baby's kicking and through Juno's reflection on a clinic protester's comment: "Your baby has fingernails."

"Waitress" (showing an adulterous affair) and "Knocked Up" (assuming promiscuity is the norm) are not ideal vehicles to illustrate the human dignity of children before birth. But they do send a vital message to the movie-going public: If you are facing an unexpected pregnancy, do not let panic drive you to an abortion clinic. Do not accept abortion as the only answer to your problem. Being pregnant for nine months will not destroy your life; but abortion will destroy the life of another human being. Look around. Your family or friends or caring strangers will help you through it.

This, too, is a message given by many bishops in the United States including, most recently, Baltimore's new archbishop, Edwin F. O'Brien. At his October installation Mass he pledged:

"No one has to have an abortion. To all of those in crisis pregnancies, I pledge our support and our financial help. Come to the Catholic Church. Let us walk with you through your time of trouble. Let us help you affirm life. Let us help you find a new life with your child, or let us help you place that child in a loving home. But please, I beg you: let us help you affirm life. Abortion need not be an 'answer' in this Archdiocese."

This is a message we all can live by.

We have the opportunity to help Archbishop O'Brien keep his pledge to support those in crisis pregnancies now! Throughout Lent, there will be a pack-and-play in the gathering space at Seton. The Respect Life committee is collecting new and gently used baby items for Pregnancy Decisions Health Centers (PDHC). The items collected will be used to help women who choose to have their babies rather than abort them. Please support this worthwhile and practical way to prevent some abortions!

Then take the time to go see "Bella", an excellent movie with a strong pro-life message, and "Juno", which is also excellent and ultimately pro-life!

If anyone is interested in forming a team and participating please contact the Grand Knight. The entry fee is $150.00. The event occurs on April 5th and 6th. There is a 2nd and 3rd degree coming up at Our Lady of Perpetual Help on February 24th. If anyone is aware of anyone interested please contact the membership chairman. There is a new membership management system coming online on February 18th. It will replace parts of the Financial Secretaries software package. The March blitz is scheduled for the 29th & 30th. The chairman is looking for 4th degree Knights to assist at a booth after each service.

Program Director: We will have 5 submissions for the January/February turn in period. It was asked if we had nominated anyone for the "Of the Year award" and it was acknowledged that we had. It was announced that to replace the insurance quota for the council we could have an estate planning session. The council was asked if anyone was interested. Some interest was expressed.

Church Director: No Report

Youth/Squires: The Squires have been busy assisting in fish fry's. They attended the State Volleyball tournament. They received a plaque from the state for donating the highest contribution for matching funds among all Squires Circles in the state. There will be a State Cornhole tournament on May 17th along with a Reds game. They are in need of councilors for this event.

Respect Life Committee: Everything worked out well for the DC trip. This year for the first time they attended the youth Mass for life and it was a very exciting experience with 20,000 students. The singing and participation was incredible. After the Mass there was a police escort to get everyone to the March for Life. Ed is starting to look into the possibilities of sponsoring a bus. The Pac N Play is up in the gathering space and we are collecting new and slightly used baby goods for 0-6 month children for the Pregnancy Decision health center. Please give if you have the opportunity.

Kroger Cares Program: For the Month we charged XXXX and income of XXXX. In addition we sold 7 new cards for XXX.

Fish Fry's: On a good night we usually serve between 300 and 350 dinners last Friday we served 226, so it was a very light night. We have an ad in the Catholic Times for the next 3 weeks about our Fish Fry's.

Dave Schalk Picnic: We are coordinating meetings with Spy to gain their support in the tear down and set up. We are getting a hold of Dave to see if he has any preferences about the menu choices. Fr. Jim is very concerned about making sure everything goes off well so we will need to insure we communicate with him on a regular basis. The Squires have already volunteered their services.

Scholarship: We have currently received only 1 application for the scholarship.

Unfinished Business:

Retention: No Report

New Business:

St Patrick's Day Party: A motion was made to approve up to $1000.00 for the St. Patrick's Day Party. The motion was seconded and the floor was opened for discussion. It was noted that last year we spent $1368.00. It was noted that we will purchase bottles instead of a keg of beer this year due to the amount consumed. After discussion the motion was called and the vote passed.

Charity Road Show: The Columbus diocese charity road show will be at Seton Parish this Sunday at 2:00pm. Brother Fran has asked our council to provide refreshments. Since Brother Jesse will be out of town the Deputy Grand Knight will be attending. Wayne will provide access to the keys for refreshments. Bud Joos pointed at that we needed at least 4 representatives to get full points for rebates. It will last about 1 1/2 hours. Terry Reine, Bud Joos volunteered to assist. With Fran attending we will have 4. It was noted that a couple of 100 people will be attending so we will need to approve expenses for the refreshments. A motion was made to approve up to $300.00 for refreshments for the Charity Road Show. The motion was seconded and the floor was opened for discussion. The motion was called for vote and passed. Bud Joos has appointed himself chairman of the event and will send out the tickets based on what people have bought in the past.

Field Agents Report: No Report

District Deputy Report: No Report

4th Degree Report: No Report

State Report: No Report

Advocate Report: Deacon Hector introduced Brother Dwayne and informed everyone he was an Iraqi veteran which was met with a round of applause. Deacon Hector referred back to a homily he had done a couple weeks ago and noted that it turned out to be quite controversial and he talked a bit about the pain of those that have had an abortion. He then talked about our duties as Catholic voters, which is to have a well formed conscience. He talked about the Magisterial, which is the teaching arm of the Church and how before Vatican II we didn't study the bible a lot. This was because the Church wanted to make sure we didn't misinterpret the Bible. Since Vatican II that has changed. Then he talked about our duty to form our Conscience so that we can make an informed decision when we vote. He reminded all that Pro life is not just about abortion, it is about life form conception to natural death and no one candidate agrees completely with the Catholic viewpoint. He challenged everyone to read the Challenge of Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship to help you understand how to weigh your decisions and form your Conscience.

Prayers: George Harrington, David Dean, Julie Schwiriam, Jeff Samborsky, Maureen Patterson, Tim Maite, Mark Bailey, Harold Levesque, Luciano Tavares, David Doyle, all of military home and abroad, our Priests and all in the ministry.

Fish Fry News - only 2 left

Again, starting in February of 2008 the Council will be sponsoring five Lenten fish fry's. The fish fry's produce a significant amount of our annual income and offer a great opportunity to get reacquainted with old friends and, for newer members, to make new friends and become better acquainted with other Council members.

Each weekly fry requires 20-25 willing hands (actually 40-50) who are willing to work hard for a couple of very busy hours clearing tables, serving, pot washing and general cleanup. Wives and significant others are gladly welcomed. Also, we need several couples starting about 3:00 to wrap utensils, prepare condiments and generally help us get organized. If your schedule is such that you would be able to arrive later and help with late cleanup you would be most welcome as we are always short of these people.

The fish fry's are scheduled for February ~~8th, 15th, 22nd,~~ 29th, and March 7th. Please keep these dates open on your calendar.

If you're contacted please agree to help out. If you're not contacted please contact one of the chairpersons and make your willingness known.

Also, this year we are in need of a group of people to make telephone calls to brother Knights during the week proceeding to arrange for desserts. The ladies who have done this job in past years are unable to continue. This would be a wonderful job for other organizations who would like to help out without having to leave their homes.

Information

Interested? ...

Interested in starting the New Year off on a very positive note? How about taking a look at your spiritual life and your personal relationship with your Lord and your brothers in Christ. You may want to consider looking into participation in one of the three Seton Men's Fellowship Groups that are meeting regularly in our Parish community. There are approximately 25 men getting together to praise the Lord, review scripture passages, familiarize themselves with the new Catechism Of The Catholic Church, pray for and with each other, and I believe one group even praises the Lord in song as well.

Thanks to the fire of the Holy Spirit and the good works of these men through evangelization this Ministry continues to grow. At the present time, we have four other men who are waiting to lead their own groups. Size of the groups is limited to no more than 10 men, but some exceptions can be made based on the wishes of the group. This Ministry at Seton is an outreach of the Catholic Men's Ministry of the Diocese which sponsors the annual Catholic Men's Conference which many Brother Knights attend.

Bottom line Brother Knights: If you feel you are as close to Jesus as you can be, then just ignore this invitation to join us. If you want to "kick your relationship up a notch" please give me a call. We now have groups in early stages of development, or groups actually functioning in four of the ten Parishes in our Vicariate. The Holy Spirit is with us and we know we will continue to grow. I sincerely hope that you will look into Seton Men's Fellowship and really get your New Year off to a great start.

Prayers for all,

Harry Clyburn
