Congratulations to our Graduating Students Happy Father's Day

Volume 17
Issue 8

Dear Brother Knights,

Alas, this is my last letter to you, as your Grand Knight. It has been a long year for me and my family. I have done the very best I can do, and I surely want to THANK EVERYONE for their hard work, especially those that helped me, beyond the call of duty. You know who you are. Your support of my efforts has meant a great deal to me.

All I ask is that you continue to offer help, support and prayers for your new Grand Knight, Harry Clyburn. I would like to congratulate all the new officers, and assure Harry, he is being put in good hands, and vice versa.

Frank Piper did a wonderful job heading up the 'Measure-Up Campaign.' Huge thanks is being offered to all those who were able to help in this event. We collected over $2,000.00, and collectively decided to donate the full amount to the Pickerington Special Olympics Committee. May the Lord bless you all for your fine work.

I must thank George Schneider for chairing the 'Charity Raffle,' and thank all the knights who sold tickets. I also want to personally acknowledge George, due to his up coming wedding in July. I believe I speak for all the Knights when I say, "George and Carol, we wish you many wonderful years together, as husband and wife. God Bless you.

Grand Knight, Harry Clyburn, will be needing lots of help for the Knights' Retreat on August. 13 and 14. Contact him, if you would like to offer your help. There will be more information on this special event in the next newsletter. Mark your calendars now.

I know I sound like an old vinyl record, with the needle stuck, but please wear your Knight's shirt as often as you can to any church service, or function. Wear them with pride and make us the most visible Council in the Columbus Diocese. Think of it as collecting men for the Lord. Every day as an opportunity to open the doors of this wonderful organization to another Catholic man, who may just need a little encouragement.

One more person, for whom congratulations are in order is, Mark Knight. He has stepped up and will be the new Chief Squire Counselor. As Council 11187, we must show support and offer assistance to our squires. They are the leaders of the Holy Catholic Church of tomorrow. We want them to be prepared to take over, when our time to move on to heaven arrives. That is the destination for which we all strive.

Before I close, I just want to thank my wife, Maureen. Without her love and continued support, I would not be the man I am today. She has also been my secretary and editor of all my written correspondence, during this year of being your Grand Knight.

She deserves a round of applause, and perhaps a delivery of flowers, to show how much I appreciate her help, and her patience this past year. Jordan, her service dog, has been a huge blessing also. Maureen has never been alone during all my nights of meetings and events. She always has her constant companion and helper, Jordan. We thank the good Lord for him, everyday.

God Bless,

R. Wayne Patterson

Memorial Day Salute

I knew something was missing in last months newsletter, I forgot to add that we should be praying for our Military. Without these dedicated people we would not live in the greatest country on earth

June
2010

From the `Days of Devotion by Pope John XXIII

This is the Third of the series about the prayer the `Our Father`

“Forgive Us Our Trespasses”

The great task of the Catholic Church and Christian priesthood is, beside the ministry of the word, the distribution of God’s pardon to individuals and to people who all., more or less deliberately, ignore the or scorn the fundamental rules of life. The Ten Commandments, completed by the evangelical precepts of social justice and charity, constitute the framework of individual and collective survival.

Sin is opposed to the Commandments and to the Gospel because it is all-destroying and poisons the whole order of existence, whether individual or collective. This explains the why Jesus became, the “Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” (John 1.29). Christ came to this earth to atone for the sins of the world, and he has been immolated upon our altars, throughout the centuries, in continuation of the sacrifice.

Hardly anyone is immune to the dismal destruction of sin. The words to the Ancient Book (1 John 5:19) testify to the way in which the whole world is filled with wickedness, and unhappily bear witness to the all-pervading individual and collective disorder.

One of the Apostles said very frankly, about this “If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.”(1.John.8). But there is forgiveness for every sin. The world still endures, and will endure because the voice and the blood of Christ cry out for compassion and mercy.

PRAYER BEFORE STARTING WORK

My Heavenly Father, as I enter this workplace,
I bring your presence with me.
I speak Your peace, Your grace, Your mercy,
and Your perfect order into this office.
I acknowledge Your power over all that will be spoken, thought, decided, and done within these walls.
Lord, I thank you for the gifts You have blessed me with.
I commit to using them responsibly in Your honor.
Give me a fresh supply of strength to do my job.
Anoint my projects, ideas, and energy,
so that even my smallest accomplishment
may bring You glory.
Lord when I am confused, guide me.
When I am weary, energize me.
When I am burned out, infuse me with the light of the Holy Spirit.
May the work that I do and the way I do it bring Faith, joy, and a smile to all that I come in contact with today. And oh, Lord, when I leave this place, give me traveling grace.
Bless my family and home to be in order as I left it.
Lord thank You for everything You've done,
Everything You're doing and everything You are going to do.
In the name of Jesus I pray, with much love and Thanksgiving
Amen

Happy Father's Day

In keeping with a longstanding commitment to build stronger marriages and families, the Knights of Columbus launched a new initiative at the 126th Supreme Council Meeting, called Fathers for Good. The centerpiece of the initiative is an interactive Web site, www.fathersforgood.org.

The theme for the launch of the Web site is "A Father's Identity," which offers men resources on how to build a strong, loving and confident identity in a culture that often does not value fatherhood or masculine virtues.

The Web site also offers sections on male spirituality and building a better relationship with God, topics that are often overlooked on other male-oriented sites.

You can also find a link on our Council's website.

Knights of Columbus
IN SERVICE TO ONE, IN SERVICE TO ALL

A FATHER IS A ...

Protector ... Involved ... A Loving Husband ... and so much more.

Welcome to Fathers for Good, an initiative for men by the Knights of Columbus.

Whether you are a seasoned dad, a new dad, a dad to be, or a single guy wanting to know more about fatherhood, this website is for you.

There is a role only a father can fill and gifts only a father can give. In a culture that often does not favor fatherhood or masculine virtue, we wish to highlight the unique contributions of men, husbands and fathers. The world would be lacking without them.

We also welcome wives who want to support their husbands in becoming the best fathers they can be.

On this Web site you will find:

- Inspiration
- Expert Advice
- Answers to your Questions
- Interactive Features
- A Forum for Your Stories
- A Look at Living the Fatherhood Vocation
- Ways to Strengthen Your Marriage
- St. Joseph Booklet Series

A Father is ... a work in progress. Indeed, a dad's work is never done - in what he can learn from his family and what he can teach his children, in the sacrifices he can make and the rich rewards he can be given, in the love he can live out and also receive.

A Father is ... called by God the Father. This is the vocation that is the foundation of fatherhood. Of course, no earthly father will be like "our Father who art in heaven," but God does give certain graces to fathers who seek him out and follow his way.

A Father is ... an ordinary man who is called and equipped to do extraordinary things from day to day - work, provide, protect, pray, get involved with his family and be there as an example for his children and faithful to his wife.

Thank You

Brother Knights please accept this on behalf of myself Pandora and the Music Ministry:

From everyone in the Music Ministry, we again say thank you for your assisting us in procuring the additional handchimes for the bell choir. As we indicated last year when we obtained the final three bells, we can only go as far as 4 octaves - 49 bells or chimes. To go farther would require an additional table with the pads, etc. That alone would cost nearly $800. But, we simply do not have the room in the sanctuary to go farther. As such, our handbell/handchime instrument is "complete" with the current purchase of the additional 2-octaves of handchimes which compliment the handbells.

Since our choirs are now on "summer break", we look forward to using them in September when our choirs resume.

Thanks again from all of us, adults and youth, for your support.
