Happy Labor Day!

Dear Brother Knights,

Hello September

As I was looking through the Catholic Times, I read an article about parish festivals. As our festival approaches, we should think about the role of our festival as it can be an amazing evangelizing tool. Sometimes (even in beer tents) adults begin to think about what they are doing with their lives, especially if they have children and faith has not been much of a priority. They see other adults having fun and wonder why they are not as faithful as their old friends. Parish festivals can be a gateway into helping others see what goes on inside the Catholic Church. We can be an answer to unsaid prayers of that friend or neighbor who decided to show up at the festival just out of curiosity. We can be the vehicle that helps change lives.

This year during the festival, the Catholics Returning Home sign will be displayed. This is part of our evangelizing as Knights a well. Meetings will be starting in October. Do you know of family member, friend or neighbor who could benefit from this?

Parish Festival:

September 6th, 7th, and 8th (Please make sure you have signed up to help if you haven't, just show up and volunteer where needed)

Dates to Remember:

First Saturday, September 7th - 8:30am Rosary with meeting to follow

First Sunday Mass September 1st - 9:30am (please wear your Knight's shirt at whichever Mass you attend)

Wednesday, September 11th - 7:30pm - Monthly

Wednesday, September 25th (possible 1st Degree Ceremony)

God Bless you and your family.

Take Up His Cross,

George Schneider

Business Meeting Notes - August 14, 2013

We held a pre-meeting with an excellent presentation by DGK Glen Williams honoring our "Of the Year" recipients. Those receiving this award were:

Clergy of the Year	Deacon Hector Raymond
Lady of the Year	Carol Puhlman-Schneider
Volunteer of the Year	Wayne Patterson
Youth of the Year	Kyle Planck
Knight of the Year	Frank Hare

The bios of these individuals were read and their accomplishments were all truly marvelous and too detailed to mention here. But, suffice it to say, these individuals are living their Faith in a manner all should follow.

The regular business meeting was then called to order at 7:30 by Grand Knight George Schneider

Roll Call of Officers: All officers were in attendance with the exception of our Chaplain, Warden, Chancellor, and Lecturer, of which the latter three still need determined.

The minutes of the last meeting were motioned for approval by Wayne Patterson, seconded by Edd Chinnock, voted on and passed.

Chaplain's Report: No Report.

Membership Committee Report: We still need somebody to step up and handle our Membership Program...an extremely vital part of our Council. Please consider this honor of assisting others to become members and brothers. We have candidates in the wings already (eight) and attempted to set a First Degree Ceremony for Wednesday, August 28. Unfortunately, this did not occur. We desperately need someone to shoulder the responsibility of acting as our Membership Chair. Please... someone accept this responsibility and help us grow. Councils without active recruitment slowly disband. Do not let this happen to one of the best councils in the state!

Grand Knight's Report: G.K. George Schneider then began with a list of important items.

Our Grand Knight mentioned the change of the officer's Meeting to 8/14 and thanked all for their attendance

The Grand Knight then strongly encouraged all to become involved in the Pickerington Labor Day Parade! Our council will march...and will have a float for riders! Line up is at Pickerington Central on 9/2 at 8:30AM. Wear your Knights shirt. Wear your tux if you wish to march and be involved with our flag corps and the carrying of our colors! We also need to individuals...no tux necessary...to carry our banner! Bring the family! This can be a tremendous way to show our involvement in community and push our council membership!

And finally, Brother Schneider encouraged us all to be involved with our Council's 20th Anniversary. More on this later in these notes!

Treasurer Report: Brother Mike Phillips shared our bank account totals and we are financially sound. Our flexible budget is available for the Program Directors to see their initial spending amounts. See Mike for a copy.

On a side note, Brother Phillips commented on the new magnet available for sales and purchase year long...the new "He is Risen" magnet in the shape of a cross. Check the State Web site for a picture and look forward to buying one as soon as they come in! Remember...we are the distributor for the entire state for these magnets. Spread the word to other churches you may attend upon occasion.

Financial Secretary Report: Brother Frank Hare read bills and then reminded all of the Festival and the need for many hands.

Also...if you are in the need of a new Knight's shirt...contact Frank Piper!

The bills which were read were motioned to be sent to the trustees for payment by Wayne Patterson, seconded by Edd Chinnock, voted and passed along for payment.

Report of the Trustees: No report...they were busy investigating the bills.

Chancellor's Report: No Report.

Report on Programs and Committees:

Program Director: No report.

Membership: See our earlier comments.

Church Director: Brother Patterson mentioned that we sent a Mass card for deceased Brother Loch and many attended his calling hours and funeral. Rest peacefully, Ed.

Our good brother then added that he will soon present a motion for the purchase of six new chalices and a ciborium for the church.

Community Director: Brother Laughery reminded all to be involved in the Pickerington Labor Day Parade. Brother Eisenacher asked that those handing out the miniature flags give them only to the adults to assure proper handling. We cannot have our flags tossed on the ground by overzealous youths.

Brother Thom then went on to mention the Seton Festival is coming soon and help will be needed in the Food Tent. We will also have the Food Trailer from Council 5253 there for our use. Hopefully, we will be able to have a table available to hand out Form 100's and boost our membership!

Council Director: Brother Williams updated us all on the plans for our 20th Year anniversary. It will be held October 19th following the 5:00 Mass. This will be a catered event by Christie Rogers and will recognize our charter members and past Grand Knights. A larger celebration will be held for our 25th anniversary.

Family Director: Brother Ryan Anderson mentioned we could not have a "Family Movie Night" due to licensure and copyright laws. He is pursuing a "Family Home Movie Night" where all could come and share Home Movies and Videos of their own personal clans! Prizes can be awarded for various ideas...funniest, oldest, etc. Look for more on this throughout the year!

Youth Director: Brother Garcia announced the end of the Car Washes where good money was made and not a soul went home dry. He added that Religious education begins and asked for volunteers to teach. He concluded by saying the Confirmation Retreat is already in planning!

Right to Life Director: Brother Chinnock then reported that the Bus to Washington D.C. for the "Right to Life" march was almost filled. Only ten seats remain and will be held for past attendees. The rooms are reserved already as well. Edd needed to make these reservations early and will motion for the "pass through" of funds later.

It was next mentioned that the PDHC office opened at 49 Hill Rd. Yea! It is next to the subway and volunteers are needed to staff.

Finally, Edd reminded all of the clinic at 670 Hill Rd. remaining open and to come pray for its removal. Monday, Tuesday and Saturday are the days. 10:00AM until noon are the main hours of prayer. Please come stand and pray. Brother Ryan Anderson suggested advertising the Saturday event as a prayer event perhaps followed by a luncheon.

Squires Report: Brother Mike Phillips reported about the Squires and the dates for the Dodge Ball Tournament. The dates are February 1st and 2nd. Be ready to assist when asked! These young men deserve our help!

Festival Food: As a reminder from last month, Brother Frank Hare said planning is already underway for festival food and encourages anyone wishing involvement to give him a call.

Unfinished Business:

Brother Ed Loch donated a tremendous number of items for the use of those who are disabled. They included several wheelchairs ...some electric and in excellent shape...chair rides, bed railings, shower seats, reaching implements and more. We will graciously pick these items up and see they are distributed (in Ed's name) to the Pickerington Senior Center, the Parish, the VA hospital and J.O.I.N. Even in death...he gives.

New Business:

Brother Glen Williams motioned that we spend up to $XXX for our 20th Anniversary celebration. This was seconded by Mike Croyle and will be voted on at the next meeting.

Brother Harry Clyburn then withdrew his previous motion from last month where he asked for us to donate $XXXX ($XXXX per month) to support Aimee Logsdon and the St. Paul Outreach program of which she is involved. He replaced this motion with a new one requesting $XXXX as the donation amount (XXXX per month) to support Aimee Logsdon and the St. Paul Outreach program of which she is involved. This was seconded by Wayne Patterson and will be voted upon next month. The money will be split from several program budgets and all directors involved have agreed to share the "hit".

Brother Wayne Patterson then strongly encouraged us all to be more involved with the Coat Drive for St. Vincent's which is run yearly and primarily by two of our Lady Knights, Joie Petersen and Rose Drignat. Please be ready to buy a coat or two as your finances allow. Too many coats went unclaimed over the past few years. Charity! Remember!

And finally for new business ... John Bernard has asked if the Knights would consider building a walkway/sidewalk/path from the PAC to the storage building. As of now...usually a mud trail is the path. We will investigate. Brother Eisenacher suggested the paving crew be directed to do the job.

Report of the Fourth Degree: Football Frenzy tickets are on sale for $10 each. See Brother Mike Sillings for these tickets good for watching through ten weeks of the NFL Season. It is sure better than watching the Browns! The tickets give you four different teams to watch each week. You add up the final scores of those teams. Most of us can still add ... except for some members of the Golf League. If your teams have one the top eight totals ... you win money! And if your teams play like the Browns ... the teams with the lowest combined scores also receive cash! Our council receives a nice kickback on these tickets so consider purchasing one soon. Turn in is needed by October 9th and the weeks of the contest begin shortly thereafter.

Another note for the Fourth Degree is that the Fall Exemplification is to be held at Bridgeport on November 9th. Those having attained their second and third degree status should consider taking their final step into full knighthood! A cape and sword and chapeau...and the honor of standing guard and baptisms, confirmations, first holy communions, funeral services of brother knights and all patriotic events...is only a ceremony away.

Field Agent Report: No report this month.

District Deputy Report: We have our 2nd and 3rd Degree Ceremonies scheduled for 10/27, 11/23 and 4/15. Any 1st degree members should consider this advancement towards full Knighthood. The Clergy Night is set for January 26th. Look for more on the previous two items later. Our District Deputy then proceeded with our Installation of Officers! We are now legal for another year.

Brothers in Need: Please keep in your prayers Maureen Patterson, Jim and Margie Patterson, Dick and Mary McComb, the Sillings family, Jeff Samborsky, Lucretia Garcia, Angie Garcia, Scott Mucha, Tim Hickey, Ron Blymire Sr., Gene Ebert, Linda Capwill, Frank Sanderell, Harry Clyburn, Clem R. Williams, Joyce M. Williams, Ariel Cartalon, our military and as always our priests and clergy.

Lecturer report: No report.

The meeting closed at 9:35PM.

Respectfully submitted by

Mike Croyle

Respect Life: Right to Life News

Respect Life: An Amazing Woman

In August an amazing young woman from Seton Parish won the Catholic Woman of the Year award. Liz Christy is the wife of Aaron and daughter of Chuck and Pat Gray, also from Seton. Because she is so involved with Respect Life, I thought you should know about this remarkable young woman.

Elizabeth Ann Christy is a wife, a mother of two, and an active member at Seton Parish in Pickerington. She was named after St. Elizabeth Ann Seton who was canonized a few months before her birth. She is a certified nurse midwife who has delivered over 1,200 babies. If you are one of these families, you will undoubtedly always remember Liz. She brings a calmness and compassion to every delivery, but more importantly she brings her faith. She prays the Chaplet of Divine Mercy as she drives in for the delivery. She secretly crosses the head of every baby that emerges. If the family asks, she will pray in the delivery room with them. She wants them to ask.

But with the joy of bringing life comes the enormity of handling decisions against life: pregnant mothers asking about abortion options, desperate women asking for fertility treatments, and of course the looming need for birth control. These are not infrequent conversations. These are every patient, everyday. This is part of the societal expectation for having an appointment with an OB-GYN practice.

When Liz was a student midwife, she felt her faith would fit perfectly in line with her profession. What could possibly be more pro-life than delivering babies? But very gradually, small decisions began to sneak in. Just learn how to write this prescription. Just help with these fertility treatments. She thought she always had the power to eventually opt out of these choices, but things snowballed. She soon found herself with a job that was severely disjointed with her faith.

Liz desperately struggled with this conflict between the Catholic teaching and the expectations of her job. She felt that the positive difference she was making was being undone by the obligation she felt in prescribing birth control. Spiritually, she felt in constant turmoil. She became busy with her job and stopped singing in the choir - something she had always loved to do. She had a well paying job, a house, a strong marriage, and two beautiful children. She had everything society said should make her happy, but inside she was a mess. She looked around and saw a world that simply did not lean toward the Catholic view on procreation and she had no idea how to emerge from underneath the enormous weight of her decisions.

One day in a grocery parking lot, she heard a Catholic radio program on contraception and the effects on society. Liz hit bottom and broke down. She started saying out loud, "I know what I am doing is wrong, but this is too hard. I don't know what to do. Just show me and I'll do it." God did not wait long. The next day, a friend casually mentioned in general conversation that her OB-GYN provider did not prescribe birth control at all. Every light bulb turned on. This changed everything. Liz immediately began researching, planning, and preparing how she could implement the same thing within her own work.

After many weeks of careful preparation, she stepped into the office of the physician who owned the practice and stated that she could no longer in good conscience provide birth control or fertility treatments for patients. She knew that she might be fired from a job she loved, but she could not let her work obligations tear her away from her faith. She had to begin living her faith in all aspects of her life. Work could not be an exception.

She carefully laid out an alternate strategy where she could attend to pregnant patients and those that did not need birth control. She explained how the office could adapt to her needs and still be just as productive. He was confused and didn't understand. He tried to debate her and convince her that the decision was misguided. "Can't I have a chance to talk you out of it?" he asked. Liz said, "This is being directed by someone bigger than me and I have to go along with it. I need to know if we can make this work. Can I stay here or do you need me to leave?" He said, "Let's not get crazy here. Let me have time to process and think. I have questions to ask, but we can work this out." He finally agreed, but left it up to Liz to explain her decision to others and ensure the implementation.

When you take such a public risk to realign your life to Christ, you become a witness. People notice. Staff, patients, nurses, other physicians, and even friends begin asking questions. Difficult questions. However, like in most things, Liz not only prays, she prepares.

Why does she follow this antiquated, burdensome Church teaching on birth control? Liz explains the Church teaching on not the simple "rule", but the Catholic reasoning that supports it. In doing so, she shines light on an alternate path that is not predicated on inclusion of birth control. Why would the Church be so callous to deny an infertile couple the right to have a baby? Liz discreetly teaches Pope Paul VI's Humanae Vitae using her own life and previous patients as reference. Patients ask about whether they should test for genetic defects. Liz bluntly explains that there are two kinds of people: those who want to know this answer to terminate their baby's life and those that believe the knowledge can help them prepare. Mothers stop, take a step back, and are forced to examine their conscience. Seeing these kinds of actions and hearing an educated explanation demands a response.

Patients ordinarily ignored and disregarded in everyday society are treated with such kindness and respect that after several visits with Liz, one recent patient named her newborn daughter "Elizabeth Christy". Fellow midwives ask questions about Catholic devotion to Mary. Liz introduces them to Mary, and the next day buys them rosaries and an instructional booklet so that they can begin their own journey. One of these recipients has since decided to become Catholic and baptize her children. People find a high level of comfort with Liz and begin publicly opening up about their faith -- asking questions, looking for guidance. One Baptist physician asked Liz to sing at her mother's Catholic funeral. Whether they are aware or not, Liz is slowly beginning to pull them towards the Church. When a physician told Liz that he needed some kind of sign before going back to Church, Liz smiled, calmly looked up at him and said, "Why do you think I am here?"

These are not ordinary reactions. These are not people deciding what flavor of coffee to buy. These are people making drastic changes to their lives through explicit examples of love and conviction. Catholics, prior Catholics, people with no religious affiliation, friends, family, patients -- all of them see something amazing in Liz. Someone courageous. Someone no longer willing to compromise her faith. A woman whose actions toward everyone she meets is clearly being led by someone else. And when you see someone like this, you can't help but want it for yourself. You begin to see yourself in her actions.

Making a significant life change has no choice but to bleed into your spiritual life and participation within your parish. Liz continues to be an active member of the Music Ministry and a routine cantor at Sunday mass, weddings, and funerals. The Lord has blessed her with a beautiful singing voice that always comes across with feeling, meaning, and a wondrous calm. At a pro-life prayer rally that was held inside the Ohio State House, Liz showed up and as they were ready to begin reciting the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, she asked if they would like someone to sing it instead. Hearing her voice echoing off the cold walls of the statehouse was an extremely moving and prayerful experience.

At this year's vacation bible school, Liz led the music program, encouraging 130 young children to sing and follow hand motions for songs describing God's love in their lives. The children could not help responding to her gentle, loving, and spirit-filled presence on the stage. She also works through the parish Respect Life committee where she shares her story as a witness and delivers meals to the Bethesda Healing Ministry.

Her efforts have served as a springboard to help the Pregnancy Decision Health Center where she volunteers in their offices. In addition she has served as the coordinator for the Seton "Baby Bottle" fund raising campaign and voiced the radio promotion for their Pickerington location fund raiser on AM 820. During Respect Life Month, she assembled a program on pro-life issues and presented it to the religious education program at Seton. She is involved with all pro-life activities in the parish and includes her husband and two children whenever the activity allows it.

It becomes clear that at some point, your Catholic faith is going to directly collide with some competing aspect of your personal life. It may be your work, your friends, or even your spouse making it seem that the societal choice is the only one to be made. Liz has shown that you always have another option. She demonstrates through her actions that it is possible to find the courage to realign yourself with Christ and in doing so, touch countless lives by your example. With God's grace, you can become a witness and a teacher. Without question, Liz Christy is both.

Excerpted from Liz's Catholic Woman of the Year nomination letter.

Council News

Labor Day Parade On Monday our council participated in our first Pickerington Labor Day Parade -- WHAT a success! Our entry included a float which is a replica of the Santa Maria all decked out in Red, White, and Blue!! We had an Honor Guard, Banner Carriers, 20+ Knights from Seton (and other councils), and Squires marching the parade route. We handed out flyers for the Seton Festival, small US flags, and the Squires were giving out Tootsie Rolls! Reviewers along the route stood to honor the flag. Knights distributed the flyers to citizens on their porches! Kids in the crowd enjoyed seeing the Squires and getting candy from them! It was a Great Day in Pickerington USA!

My thanks to the Color Guard for their stamina! My appreciation for the new and young Knights, and Squires that participated -- you are our council's future! And a thank you to all the Lady Knight that traveled the route with us! If there was ever a way to express our potential in and for the community, this was an excellent first step! Fourth of July 2014 is next parade on our list.

Festival Just a reminder that we should demonstrate our solidarity by wearing our Knights shirts when attending or working at the Festival. We will be introducing the KofC Sandwich Wagon this year. We are still in need of staffing help for the week-end. Contact John Letourneau, Frank Hare, Dick Petersen, or Thom Laughery to volunteer.

Seton Festival and a Food Wagon

Once again the Seton Festival is upon us, September 6-8. New this year we will have the use of the Knights of Columbus food wagon on loan to us by the St. Pius Council 5253. This will give us the opportunity to serve a limited sandwich menu during the festival. Ideally the wagon will be positioned adjacent to the food operation near the shelter. Currently, I anticipate the wagon staffing requirement to be three people per shift; with seven shifts over the weekend. We need 25-30 volunteers to serve pulled-pork sandwiches, Italian sausage, Brats, and Hot Dogs; and to help on the grill at the shelter.

Please contact me directly to sign-up for working the wagon as this will not be on the Festival sign-up boards as it is for Knights only. My number is (614) 397-0997 or by email at tllblsel@msn.com.
